FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 28. BOTH the Parkersburg Times and the Clarksburg Telegraph favor a State Convention of the Republican party at an early day, say in August, and the former suggests that it be called by the State Committee residing at Wheeling. The Telegraph names Clarksburg as the place. The object indicated is to organize the party prior to the fall elec-tions, and also to take into considers tion several questions of constitutional reform, It may be necessary to hold a State Convention between this and Oc-tober, but we doubt it for the present.

We have no State officers to nominate, and the business of such a body must needs be purely theoretical. However, we can better determine the necessity for a call after Congress shall meet and THE Richmond Whig is just now undergoing an experience somewhat similar to that gone through by the INTEL-LIGENCES in the early Republican days in Wheeling. The paper is suspected of being no longer orthodox, in fact of being determined to ploneer the way for Republican principles in Old Vir ginia. The Enquirer seems to be much disturbed at this manifest disposition on the part of the Whig, and proceeds to catechise it as to its creed. The fol-lowing is the reply made to the En-

Enquirer does 'not wish to misesent it.' It asks us to construe and ound our article of Monday last. expound our article of alonday last. With all respect to our cotemporary, we shall do no such thing. We have written what we have written, and if it is unintelligible to the Enquirer, we have no hope of being able to write anything more perspicuous. If the fault is in the Enquirer and not in ourselves, we are still less hopeful of remedying it. Understood or misunderstood remessanted correctly or misenodying it. Understood or misunder-stood, represented correctly or misrep-resented, we shall keep steadily on in the even tenor of our way, relying upon the intelligence and public virtue of our people to co-operate with us in the work of reconstruction. We seek a con-troversy with no one—shall misrepre-sent no one, and shall unhesitating; y do what we deem right, judicious and practical, leaving the Enquirer to pur-nue its own aims and its own line of policy."

Ing extract from it, as follows:

We urged the venerable Senator to give us his views on the labor question, and he did so at great, length, saying among other things "that system of labor which degrades the poor man and elevates the rich which makes the rich richer and the poor poorer; which drags the very soul out of the poor man for a pitiful existence, is wrong. We must elevate the laborer and give him a share in the preceeds of his labor."

We asked him how that was to be done, and he said:

but he perhaps has more knowledge on all subjects than any man in this country. I think well of his plan, and the idea of co-operation, if carried out among the working classes, will do much to ameliorate their condition." He then went on to show how in Cincinnati, New York, Boston, and other places, working men combined, started manufactories and were doing well. He showed how, by the principle of co-operation, laborers in large factories, could build or rent houses, buy goods in large quantities for their families, and in various ways save about one-third of what it now costs them to live. "But," said Mr. Wade, "the principle of co-operation is about as far as I have got, and, though certainly good in itself, it will not cover the whole case, and still someting more will be reand still someting more will be re-quired ... cial dispatch, published yesterday, in reference to Russian North America there are about three hundred foggy days in every year in that delightful climate. Probably they have a clear day once a week, and the most appro priate one for that exhibition, would be a sun day. We have got possession of rather a damp country, where it is re rather a damp country, where it is required that wood shall be cut and allowed to dry for two years before it will burn. Fire insurance at Sikka ought, therefore, to be at a low premium, and instead of sun shades, the ladies should carry umbrellas.

Ar the session of the Baptist General Association, recently held in Lynch-burg, Virginia, one of the clergymer stated that in many, parts of the coun try the negroes have manifested great interest about Africa; and in a recent interview with General O. O. Howard he was assured that all the negroe who may wish to go to Africa will be sent free of cost to any part of Liberia.
The Freedmen's Bureau will send them to any part of the United States, and the colonization Society will take them to Africa.
